FERPA Directory Information : Restriction OR Revocation

Restriction OR Revocation

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) requires each institution to allow students to restrict OR release their directory information. Please be aware that this FERPA Directory restriction will result in the following:

- Student name will not appear in the commencement program or on the commencement program website.
- Verification of enrollment, graduation, or degrees awarded will not be provided to third parties, including potential employers and insurers.
- Directory information will not be released to any person on the telephone, in person, or via email.

I, the undersigned, hereby request the Registrar's Offices of University of Massachusetts to restrict OR release the Directory Information listed in my file at UMass. I understand that none of my Directory Information will be released unless I, the undersigned, should subsequently provide consent to release this Directory Information.

For more information on FERPA including policies for your campus and what is considered directory information, you may select the link for your respective campus:
