

Survey of Massachusetts Likely Voters Oct. 18 – 25, 2022

N = 1,000 Massachusetts Likely Voters

The survey is available at <https://www.mass.gov/info-details/2022-mass-likely-voters-survey> for full questionnaire/topline results and detailed methodology disclosure.

Survey design and analysis by John Deier, director of survey research, University of Massachusetts Lowell

Democrat
Opp

Republican

- In support of driver's licenses for people living in the country illegally, 55% of voters in Massachusetts, 58% in Florida, and 66% in Arizona.
- In support of driver's licenses for people living in the country illegally, 54% of voters in Florida, 58% in Massachusetts, and 55% in Arizona.
- In support of driver's licenses for people living in the country illegally, 44% of voters in Florida, 29% in Massachusetts, and 55% in Arizona.

2. Voters supportive of driver's licenses for people living in the country illegally, Yes on Question 4 likely to win

"Opponents of driver's licenses for people living in the country illegally in Massachusetts have one person to blame for the strong yes numbers on Question 4: Florida Gov. Ron DeSantis. Relocating migrants to Martha's Vineyard made voters in Massachusetts likely to win."

spent by the No side, it's the only

31% MBTA 54% 15